WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over forty years' experience—a skillful and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter has the most careful consideration and is regarded as a confidential communication. Many sensitively women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say, "It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health."

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.—take his advice and be well.

Mrs. R. D. Montfort, of London, Warren Co., G. writes: "I have received the 'Medical Adviser.' It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health."

The Original LITTLE LIVER PILLS, first put up by Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but give great results in a curative way in all derangements of Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ, and so, far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allows itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drugists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

W. W. BROTHERS, 64 Warren Street, New York

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

THE LATE MARQUIS.

The facts of the life of the late Henry Cyril Paget, fifth Marquis of Anglesey, during the six years of his holding of the title, sound like some wild romance written round an imaginary French nobleman of the period just preceding the Revolution. Born in 1875, little is known of the childhood of the young Marquis. Perhaps the first occasion on which he attracted attention was on his marriage in 1898 to his cousin, the beautiful Miss Lillian Chetwynd. The jewels which the Marquis presented to the bride caused comment even in society; they were of a richness which had never been equaled in any wedding gift, and their profusion was almost barbaric. The Marquis had then given the first sign of a jewel mania which afterwards passed all bounds. Within a month after their marriage the young couple separated on the Riviera, and in 1900 the Marchioness obtained a divorce. The Marquis then devoted himself to his favorite pastime of skirt-dancing and theatricals.

The Marquis of Anglesey was the head of the famous Paget family, and was a cousin of Almeric Hugh Paget, son-in-law of the late William C. Whitely, and of Sidney and Arthur Paget. The wife of the latter was the daughter of the late Parson Stevens, of New York. Just after the Marquis came into his title by the death of his father in 1898 he paid a visit to this country. He was the guest of his cousin, Almeric Hugh Paget. When he departed for England he took away a French bulldog, and in some way violated the regulations governing the importation of dogs, for which he was fined $100. While in New York city he attended the Horse Show of 1898 with Mr. and Mrs. Almeric Hugh Paget.

On coming home into his estates the Marquis began to gratify his predilection for jewels, and to such extravagant lengths did this mania carry him that although inheriting an income of $550,000 a year, his debts last year amounted to $2,700,000. No price of any precious stones had any terrors for him. The $50,000 pearl scarfpin had attracted most publicity, because it was among those stolen from the Marquis about two years ago, when he lost over $100,000 worth of gems. Diamonds, rubies, emeralds, sapphires, turquoise—nearly all the precious stones found in him a ready buyer. He also devoted some attention to stones of not quite so precious a character and cast a kindly eye upon all sorts of queer charms and examples of queer settings. The object of his craze for pearls seems to have been twofold. Lord Anglesey seemed to have something of the magpie about him, a strange habit of hoarding these precious belongings, which was shown by the unexpected places in which they have been found during the recent searches in Anglesey Castle for the benefit of his clamoring creditors.

The second object with which he bought pearls was a mania for self-adornment, which led him into another strange set of excesses—his pursuit of a semi-theatrical career. Lord Anglesey seems always to have been attracted by the theater, but at a certain point in his life he seized upon this means of exhibiting his priceless jewels. His little theater in Anglesey Castle, which he built soon after he succeeded to the estates, was nothing more than a very expensive setting for the bejeweled Marquis. As Pekoe, in "Aladdin," the pantomime which he produced in 1902 in his bijou theater, he stood forth literally covered with his jewels. He wore from time to time fresh costumes covered with new gems, the total value of which was estimated at $1,250,000.

The theatrical expenditures of the Marquis had not the redeeming feature which the acquisition of priceless jewels seemed to possess, and if the object of his life had been the crippling of the family estates he succeeded beyond his wildest hopes. At the meeting of his creditors last June it was stated that after making the best possible provision for the payment of debts the Marquis had before him the hopeless outlook of living on $10,000 a year. When Anglesey Castle was ransacked by the creditors they found it literally packed with valuables of every description. The contents of one unlocked drawer alone were valued at $125,000, while among the crockery in the pantry was found a rock crystal ewer which recently sold at auction for $21,000. After the financial crash the Marquis betook himself to the Continent in the hope of making the most of his attenuated income.

Are You Engaged? Engaged people should remember, that after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Benningville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sell and guarantee them at 50c a bottle.

Pleasant and Harmless. Don't drag the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals and soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough. Sold by all druggists.

How To Gain The Happiness Of Children

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and most holy desires. Yet thousands of noble women, through the derangement of the female generative organs brought on by female weakness and disease, are unable to produce children! Ninety-nine times out of every one hundred Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will so restore and strengthen the female organism as to make child bearing possible, easy, and safe.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

with its record of thousands of cures, is the remedy for women. Thousands of women are happy mothers of beautiful children to-day because in time of need they took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No matter what your female weakness or disease, it will afford you speedy relief and cure. Every woman who desires to become a mother should read these letters:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I had been married seven years and had no children, owing to a female weakness and womb trouble, which caused me severe suffering each month. A lady advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did so, and now I have no more pains and am perfectly well, besides having a fine baby boy. MRS. ROSA F. KAREL, Ravensna, Neb.

Another happy and grateful mother writes to Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I was very anxious for a child, but could not carry one to maturity. My husband advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and soon began to feel better in every way. I continued its use and was enabled to carry my next child to maturity. I now have a nice baby girl, and I feel like a new woman. MRS. FRANK BEYER, 22 S. Second St., Meriden, Conn.

Actual sterility in women is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., whose advice is given free to all would-be and expectant mothers. Her letter will give you valuable information.
